

Jeremiah

Week 33 Chapter 52

Another Way to Worship

Lachish Letters

Letters written during Jeremiah's time that support the book of Jeremiah's history. They were discovered in 1935.

These are letters between the leaders of Jerusalem and the garrison at Lachish.

Letter 2: a soldier responds to an insult about not being able to read.

Letter 3: Warns about a prophet with a message like Jeremiah's.

Letter 4: Talks about a person who "weakens our hand" the same term applied to Jeremiah.

Letter 6: Speaks of a signal from Lachish, also noted word for word in Jeremiah.

Gedaliah was made governor of Judah in Jeremiah 40. In Lachish they found his seal and his son Hannaniah's seal.

Jaasaniah's seal (Jer 40:8)

Clay tablets found in the ruins of ancient Babylon confirm that Jehoiachin was treated well by Chaldean officials. (Jeremiah 52)
