

Christmas Day

Deuteronomy 24:1-19

Another Way to Worship

Luke 2:21-35

The listener hears.

Simeon (which mean the listener) heard that he would not die before he saw Jesus.

Who was Simeon?

We don't know.

There were several men known as Simeon the Just, around the time of Jesus.

I quoted one Simon the Just a couple of weeks ago about how the Sadducees were ripping off the poor women who offered two pigeons for a sacrifice of purification.

I wonder what we would hear if we were known as listeners.

Numbers 24:1-19

But I thought Christmas was about _____ 2.

Christmas is about Jesus and _____ is all over the Bible.

Jacob stretches out like _____ beside the rivers. (v6)

Water will _____ from his buckets. (v7 John 4:14)

Jacob's _____ (singular) Jesus will be king. (v7)

In the future a star will show up signaling a _____ who will win. (v17)

So, all of that is cool, but why is _____ passage important?

God says _____ things about Balaam in: Numbers 31:8, 31:16,

Deuteronomy 23:4-5, Josh 13:22, 24:9-10, Nehemiah 13:2, Micah 6:5, 2

Peter 2:15-16, Jude 11, and Revelation 2:14

Starting in Numbers 22 Balaam acts holy _____ behaves unholy.

Balaam's _____ has to instruct him.

Balaam instructs Balaak to use _____ to entrap the people of God to try to defeat them.

Summary

God has had a _____ from the beginning (Genesis 3:15 leads to John 3:16)

He _____ good, bad, boring, weird, and wonderful means to accomplish his goals.

Knowledge _____ will not save you.

Balaam saw Jesus coming about 1400 years before the first Christmas and he saw him coming in _____ over his enemies.
